L2 SHEN YUN - REVIVING 5,000 YEARS OF CIVILIZATION

Courtesy of Shen Yun GTA Organizing Committee

Since the dawn of Chinese civilization, its culture has been rooted in spiritual traditions. The ancients believed that their culture was divinely inspired. They told of gods bestowing wisdom from the heavens, and understood that good is always rewarded and evil punished. These beliefs endured five millennia, until the Chinese Communist Party seized power some 60 years ago. Since then, the atheist regime has sought to destroy all remnants of China's spiritual heritage.

But now, we invite you to revisit this lost civilization, and see how Shen Yun is reviving authentic traditions through music and dance. While you cannot see a performance like this in China today, it is outside of China that this culture is being brought back to life. Here is your chance to enter a world where fantasy becomes reality, and where faith and hope are rediscovered. Witness this extraordinary performance on February 28, 2017 at The Four Seasons Centre for the Performing Arts with a one night stay for two at The Sheraton Centre Toronto Hotel and dinner for two at Quinn & Shopsy's.

Value $1,000

Experience this passion first hand by gathering together with nine of your favourite foodie friends to learn how to bake an apple pie, the most iconic of comfort foods, from scratch with the team at Mildred's Temple Kitchen.

While you relax and await the fruits of your labour to bake to its golden goodness, Mildred's team will make a feast for you to enjoy! You and your guests will get to enjoy dinner with wine pairings in this open kitchen, modern atmosphere, and relaxed space in the heart of Liberty Village!
