Thousands Of Ideas. One Source.

Good Evening and Welcome to

THE VELVET LOUNGE

We would like to thank you for joining us this evening and in turn for enthusiastically supporting the Canadian Hospitality Foundation. The work of the Foundation ensures that dedicated men and women are able to achieve their academic and skills-based goals within our Canadian culinary and hospitality institutions, and be the best they can be, in order to join the ranks of our industry, the foodservice and hospitality industry.

As we enjoy an evening of wondrous performances from Matt Dusk and Glass Tiger, fabulous food, drink and dancing, we should remember that the reason we are here tonight is to provide assistance to these men and women who are preparing for our industry. Your contribution tonight is an investment in our business' future human capital. All proceeds from the evening go directly to scholarships and awards.

Please give generously; you are investing in your business' future.

As Ball Co-Chairs we would like to thank our 2011 CHF Ball Committee. These members of our industry have taken time out of their extremely busy schedules and through their tireless efforts, enthusiasm and dedication have made this event come to life. Thank you.

Please also welcome our Master of Ceremonies, Kevin Frankish, co-host of the City TV's Breakfast Television. A special thank you to Kevin for his consistent support of our worth while cause.

Once again we are honoured to have the support of our Platinum Sponsors; Unilever Food Solutions, a supporter for 18 years and The Globe and Mail, a supporter for 11 years.

We are also thrilled to have our Silver Sponsors; Andrew Peller Limited, Danone Professional, Saputo Dairy Products Canada, and Trimen Food Service Equipment support us once again. We would also like to welcome our two new Silver Sponsors; Maple Leaf Consumer Foods/Canada Bread Foodservice and The TDL Group.

It takes many people and many companies to achieve our goal and we would be remiss for not thanking all of the companies that have purchased tables, tickets, and donated to our fund raising activities, so please take some time and make note of all our sponsors and donors within our program.

Please enjoy your evening and remember all proceeds from the evening's fund raising activities benefit the CHF scholarship program which help our collective future human capital investment in the hospitality and foodservice industry.

Jane Gaynor

1991 SCHOLARSHIP WINNER

Jane Gaynor was awarded a Canadian Hospitality Foundation scholarship in 1991. The value of the scholarship extended well beyond the financial benefit; Jane looks back on the award as genuine support that someone believed in her.

To the students receiving their Canadian Hospitality Foundation scholarship today, Jane would like to say; 'Congratulations and welcome to an amazing industry! Embrace it ... the opportunities awaiting you are endless.'

For all of tonight's contributors; 'Thank you! Please keep continuing to support the Canadian Hospitality Foundation. We need to continue to attract and incentivize bright, driven, motivated leaders to join our industry. My scholarship provided me with the support and the confidence, as I'm sure it will for the recipients today and into the future.'

1982 SCHOLARSHIP WINNER

Margot Swindall

"Being awarded a Canadian Hospitality Foundation scholarship has had a profound impact on my career in hospitality. The recognition galvanized my decision to attend the University of Guelph B.Comm School of Hotel and Food Administration.

During the awards ceremony I was offered my first job in operations management and have never looked back. After 25 years working in a variety of positions for both Canadian and globally owned foodservice and hospitality organizations, I look forward to future career possibilities in this dynamic industry for years to come."

Lars Friedriszik

2008 SCHOLARSHIP WINNER

"Receiving a scholarship from the Canadian Hospitality Foundation made a tremendous difference in my life. It meant financial support for me and my young family during my college education as well as invaluable exposure to many of our industry leaders. I was able to obtain employment as an F&B Operations Manager as direct result of the networking opportunities that the CHF provides for all scholarship winners."
